This prioritization is in accordance with the Worker Exposure Risk to COVID-19 released by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. This guidance defines exposure to COVID-19 in four categories, further defined below.

C. Eligible Use of Funds

Hazard Pay – Grant funds may be used for hazard pay (as defined below) for direct, full-time and part-time employees earning less than $20/hour, excluding fringe benefits and overtime. Funds may only be used to pay hazard pay for eligible employees for the 10-week period from August 16, 2020 through October 24, 2020. Hazard pay means additional pay for performing hazardous duty or work involving physical hardship, in each case that is related to COVID-19.

Employees must be employed in Pennsylvania by an eligible Employer operating within an eligible industry. The employees must be ‘front-line’ employees facing the hazards of COVID-19 and have continued working through the Governor’s March 19, 2020 Business Closure Order as a life sustaining business or a business that received a business waiver. Front-line employees are all employees deemed necessary by the employer to report to work during the COVID-19 pandemic for life-sustaining eligible industries. Employees that are teleworking from home are not eligible for hazard pay under the program.

Administrative Costs – A CEDO applying on behalf of Employers may request an administrative fee, in addition to the hazard pay funds awarded to such Employers, not to exceed 5% of the grant total. The 5% administrative cost for a CEDO shall not exceed $125,000. Employers applying directly to DCED for funding are not eligible for administrative costs.

Section III – Grant

Applicants may apply for up to $1,200 per eligible full-time equivalent (FTE) employee. The hazard pay must be paid to the eligible employee over the 10-week period of August 16, 2020 through October 24, 2020 as a $3/hour hazard pay increase to their regular pay rate. This is in addition to any eligible overtime and other benefits, including employer paid hazard pay, and may not supplant any current compensation, nor may it supplant any scheduled increases to current compensation. Any hazard pay earned must be paid to the employee according to their regular pay schedule, and may not be withheld and paid in a later lump sum.

To determine the maximum grant request, the employer should calculate the number of full-time equivalent employees over the 10 week period for hazard pay. The quotient is obtained by dividing the total number of hours for which employees are compensated for employment over the projected 10 week period by 400. The hazard pay cannot be for any hours worked over 40 hours in a week. The number of full-time equivalent employees can then be multiplied by $1,200 to determine the maximum grant request. The online application has a downloadable form to help calculate the maximum grant request.

Employers may apply for a grant to provide hazard pay for up to 500 eligible full-time equivalent employees per location ($600,000 maximum grant per location). No Employer may receive more than $3,000,000 of the funding under the COVID-19 Hazard Pay Grant Program. Applications from a CEDO or a healthcare non-profit organization representing frontline healthcare workers may exceed $3,000,000.

Employers with multiple locations may submit one Single Application for Assistance for all of the locations.

The COVID-19 PA Hazard Pay Grant Program aims to provide hazard pay to eligible employees that have responded directly to or faced increased risk to COVID-19. As such, applications for the program will be prioritized by industry in accordance with the Worker Exposure Risk to COVID-19 released by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. This guidance defines exposure to COVID-19 in four categories:

- Very High – Jobs with a high potential exposure to known or suspected sources of COVID-19 during specific medical, postmortem, or laboratory procedures. Workers performing aerosol-generating procedures, or collecting/handling specimens from potentially infectious patients.
- High – Jobs with a high potential for exposure to known or suspected sources of COVID-19. Healthcare delivery and support, medical transport and other workers exposed to known or suspected COVID-19 patients.
- Medium – Jobs that require frequent/close contact with people who may be infected, but who are not known or suspected patients. This includes: Those who may have contact with the general public, including individuals returning from locations with widespread COVID-19 transmission, or who do not have the ability to social distance at their place of employment.
- Low – Jobs that do not require contact with people known to be, or suspected of being, infected. Workers in this category have minimal occupational contact with the public or other co-workers.

B. Accessing Funds

Applications will be received between July 16, 2020 and July 31, 2020. Following approval of an application by DCED, a grant agreement will be electronically issued by DCED to the applicant explaining the terms and conditions of the grant along with a Federal Funding Accountability & Transparency Act (FFATA) Form. The grant agreement must be electronically signed and returned to DCED within 30 days or the offer may be withdrawn by DCED. The FFATA Form must be returned with signed grant agreement or the grant contract will not be processed.

One fully-executed copy of the grant agreement will be returned to the applicant with a payment request form and instructions for requesting payment. Applicants may submit one payment request at the end of the eligible period seeking reimbursement for actual hazard pay expenditures by October 31, 2020. Support documentation will include a signed hazard pay report that includes the employee name, pay date, pay period covered, regular pay, hazard pay and description of duties related to hazard pay along with supporting payroll showing proof of payment.
